GREAT SEASON OF ACTIVITY NEAR AT HAND

Every Camp in Nye and Esmeralda Counties Showing Signs of Prosperity.

A prosperous season of mining activity seems to be assured. Every camp in Nye county, with Tonopah taking the lead, promises to become a busy place, and already there are signs of a revival of the most fascinating of all industries.

The production from the mines of the Tonopah district is being augmented from week to week, and the big mills of this community are grinding steadily day and night. The West End and MacNamara are being operated at capacity, while the Tonopah Extension is gradually increasing the tonnage that is being treated. The Belmont is receiving ore in heavy consignments from two or three properties at Goldfield, most prominent of which is the Silver Pick, and a substantial output from this one source seems to be assured for many weeks to come. Other outside properties are furnishing a considerable tonnage and it will probably not be a great while until the mill will be operating at extreme capacity.

In addition to the tonnage that is going forth daily from the shafts of the Tonopah Mining company, the Desert mill is receiving quite a large amount of ore from the West End mine, which is also operating its own mill to capacity, as well as keeping the MacNamara going at full blast.

Hornsilver seems to be in the lead as the most prosperous outside camp of either Nye or Esmeralda counties, but the prediction is freely made that Argentite will become an unusually busy place with the clearing of the weather and the disappearance of the snow from the hills. Two mines have been developed to that extent that they will be placed in the shipping class early this summer. If not before, while during the past winter discoveries of great promise have been made.

Over at Hornsilver in Esmeralda county there is a hum of activity. Several companies have invaded the field, and finds of more than passing notice have been made. The wonderful showing that has taken place at depth on the Orlean mine has proved an incentive for owners of properties to proceed with development, and the result has been that a number of promising mineral discoveries have been recorded of late. The Rosetta Mining company is sinking a shaft on its holdings and a fine body of ore is being followed that is of a commercial grade. The Goldsmith company has started operations, as has the Silver Dyke, a newly organized corporation.

There is some little movement taking place at Belchertown, and it is predicted that there will be considerable activity before the summer is very far advanced. Prospectors are in the field doing their annual assessment, while two companies are planning on starting development at an early date.

Other districts are showing signs of renewed life, but summer must arrive in earnest before real development will be in order.

P. V. Perkins and Party Depart for Carson City

P. V. Perkins, vice-president, and general manager of the American Carrara Marble company, accompanied by his wife and Mr. Johnson, popular member of the Beatty Commercial club, motored into Tonopah this morning from Carrara. They left shortly thereafter for Carson City accompanied by L. L. Mudgett and William Fanchini.

ALTITUDES GIVEN BY RAILROAD MAN

C. L. Huntley, of the T. & G. offices, has been seeking information regarding altitudes at Goldfield and Tonopah. The geological survey has a monument at the top of Columbia mountain, but the inscription which the monument was intended to carry has never been inscribed. However, Mr. Huntley has received from the geological survey the information that the top of Columbia mountain is 6095 feet above sea level. The street level at the court house is 5700 and at the Goldfield hotel, 5689, says the Tribune.

The street level in Tonopah at the Nye and Ormsby bank building is 6025 feet. Columbia mountain is 71 feet higher than the street level in Tonopah. It is 395 feet higher than the street level at the court house and that point is 11 feet higher than the street level at the Goldfield hotel.

NEW EVIDENCE OIL EXISTING IN FISH LAKE

Darms Coal Mine Has Bearing on Statement by Carbon Percentage Contained.

C. W. Taylor, president of the Fish Lake Merger, has called the attention of the Bonanza to an important bit of evidence that commercial oil will be found in Fish Lake valley that has not heretofore been mentioned.

The Darms coal discovery is no great distance from where the Merger is drilling its well. According to several analysis of the Darms coal made by the United States government, its carbon percentage averages around 44 per cent. The favorable bearing this has on the discovery of oil in the valley can be ascertained by referring to Victor Zeigler's "Popular Oil Geology," an accepted authority by all oil operators. On page 130, we find this:

"David White has suggested that since the nature of coals associated with oil bearing rocks depends upon the stage of the metamorphism to which it has been subjected, the coals may serve as a criterion to measure its intensity. It has been found that the percentage of carbon in coal increases with the amount of intensity of the metamorphism to which it has been subjected. When the percentage of carbon in coal exceeds 65 per cent no production need be expected. Most of the important accumulations of oil occur in regions where the percentage of carbon in coal is less than 55 per cent."

David White is accepted everywhere as the last word, so to speak, in oil geology, and his opinion, as stated above, has been concurred in by at least 20 of the best geologists in the country.

This, with the other ideal surface indications of Fish Lake valley, and the oil seepages already encountered, would seem to more than justify the faith of the Merger people that they cannot fail in developing a commercial oil well.

"DON'T NEGLECT YOUR WIFE" AT BUTLER TODAY

In "Don't Neglect Your Wife," a Gertrude Atherton production, which will be shown at the Butler today, will be found the true story of an unusual situation that occurred in the social circles of San Francisco which concerned the love of a successful writer and editor, Langdon Masters, for the neglected wife of Dr. Howard Talbot, an aristocrat from the south. The pair renounced ever seeing each other again when they discovered they were in love, but the neglectful husband, aroused at last, demands that Masters abandon his promising newspaper career and leave San Francisco. He accepts the sentence and drifts to New York's notorious "Five Points," where he is saved from utter degradation to a life of usefulness by Mrs. Talbot, after her husband had divorced her for running away from him. Julianne Scott and Lewis Stone play the leading roles, and are supported by an excellent cast.

Added to the program, the latest Pathe Review.

Tomorrow, Lon Chaney and Leatrice Joy, in "The Ace of Hearts," a powerful melodrama with a novel twist.
